* Note: Georgia changed to a regional review process in FY 2007; data collected prior to FY 2007 were based on case samples pulled from selected counties; beginning FY 2007, case samples are pulled by region so that all counties are potentially included in the review process, with the exception of Fulton and DeKalb counties, which fall under the Kenny A Consent Decree review process for foster care cases; CPS cases in those counties will have an abbreviated review in FY 2009.
